Tutoring Experience

Over the past eight years, I've helped students across the globe excel in IB ESS and other related subjects. My students have consistently scored high, thanks to the personalised guidance I provide, which ensures they grasp both fundamental and complex environmental topics. I take pride in their success in coursework and final exams.

In addition to IB ESS, I've also supported students in IGCSE and A-Level Environmental Science. My approach focuses on developing a solid understanding of systems and societal impacts, preparing students not only for exams but for further studies in environmental science.
