Tutoring Experience

Over the past 7 years, I've worked with students from all over the world, helping them prepare for their physics exams, including IB, A-Level, and AP curricula. My students have not only achieved top scores but also gained a deeper appreciation for the subject, which has opened doors to prestigious university placements.

In addition to teaching IB Physics, I have supported students in mastering IGCSE and AP Physics topics, tailoring my lessons to meet the specific needs of each learner. With a focus on both fundamental concepts and exam preparation, I ensure my students feel confident and well-prepared for their academic challenges.
